D.J. Sokol Arena Inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center

The Ryan and Sokol families were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan pose with Billy Bluejay at the groundbreaking for the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.

Thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and the late Eileen Ryan and family, Dave and Peggy Sokol, and many others, D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center was dedicated on Aug. 28, 2009.

The 75,000-square-foot facility houses a gymnasium holding 2,500 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for volleyball, women's basketball,, men's soccer, women's soccer and visiting teams and officials. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms and hospitality functions. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

The Ryans and their family are long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. Wayne Ryan is also a Jaybacker and his daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Trustees.

Dave and Peggy Sokol are honoring their son, D.J., who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol is a former chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources and formerly served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

D.J. Sokol

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said Creighton athletics director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

The facility was fully funded by private donations and is home to Bluejay volleyball and women's basketball.

Creighton averaged 1,124 fans per home match in 2012, going 12-1 at D.J. Sokol Arena.

Home Venue History

For the fifth straight season, Creighton will play all of its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. In 2013, it will host the BIG EAST Conference tournament championship, the second league tourney in building history.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton has averaged over 1,060 fans per match at D.J. Sokol Arena.

In addition to a large locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices, a weight room and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center houses the offices for much of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, marketing and sports information. The school uses a Sport Court surface for its volleyball matches and practices.

Omaha, Nebraska

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the five Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, ConAgra Foods, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 850,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo just spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums offer a diverse cross section of art. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's botanical center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into the city's art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Creighton Baseball shares the same home as the College World Series, TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

2012 - The Year in Pictures

Creighton wins its first MVC Tournament title and quickly dogpiles on the court to celebrate its triumph.

Megan Bober was named MVC Tournament MVP, in addition to MVC Player of the Year.

Creighton with its first MVC Tournament trophy in program history after a 3-0 sweep of Wichita State.

Megan Bober, Leah McNary and Kirsten Bernthal Booth answer questions from the media after an NCAA Tournament win vs. Marquette.

2013 Outlook

After a dream season that saw Creighton win conference titles in both the regular-season and tournament play, the expectation level for Creighton in 2013 has been raised for a team that returns four starters (plus its libero) from a 29-4 squad that finished the year No. 24 nationally.

The move to the BIG EAST Conference will be a substanial adjustment, and a loaded non-conference schedule that includes UCLA, Hawai'i, Cal, Wichita State, Kansas, BYU and Bowling Green (among others) figures to challenge the Bluejays.

Without being able to sneak up on teams in 2013, Creighton knows it will have to improve to experience similar success this fall.

Michelle Sicner

Setters

The graduation of MVC Player of the Year Megan Bober will be a formidable loss, but expect Michelle Sicner to step in and direct the Bluejay offense.

As a true freshman in 2011, Sicner and Bober shared the setter's role in a 6-2 offense that took advantage of the strong all-around skills from both women.

Last year Sicner spent her time as a right-side hitter, and she's also established herself as a solid blocker at the net.

Backing up Sicner will be Kenzie Crawford, a true freshman from Michigan.

Ashley Jansen and Amanda Foje could also serve as a setters if Sicner were to be sidelined.

Kelli Browning

Middle Blockers

Named Honorable-Mention All-American last season, Kelli Browning is one of the nation's top returning middle blockers.

Browning earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors last year in a season that saw her tie for the national lead with 204 blocks. She also hit a school-record .370 a year ago while producing one of the top seasons in school history.

The departure of three-year starter Heather Thorson leaves an opportunity for junior Savannah Smith and redshirt freshman Lauren Smith to step in along Creighton's traditionally strong blocking corps.

Savannah Smith started 12 matches as a true freshman in 2010 before undergoing shoulder surgery that sidelined her for 2011 and limited her role in 2012. Healthy again, look for her to contend for a spot in the line-up.

Lauren Smith was a strong performer on the scout team and gave fans a glimpse of the future when she had nine kills and six blocks in a spring win over Nebraska.

Savannah Smith

Melanie Jereb

Outside & Right-Side Hitters

All-Conference performers Melanie Jereb and Leah McNary highlight the returnees on the outside for Creighton, but Katie Neisler, Lizzy Stivers, Savannah Smith and Jess Bird will look to crack the lineup as well.

Jereb was named named First Team All-Valley as a freshman, developing into a consistent six-rotation player who played her best during the biggest matches.

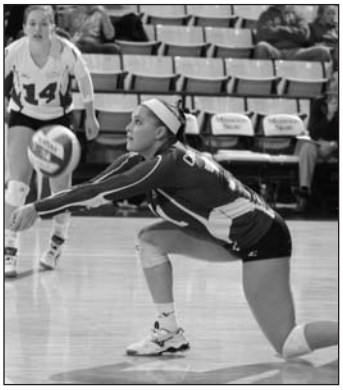
The high-flying McNary led the team in kills and reached double figures in the final seven matches of 2012, and will look to continue the vast improvements she's made since arriving to campus.

Neisler has divided her time between outside hitter and defensive specialist during her first two years on campus, but showed her front-row skills with a team-high 13 kills in a spring win at Nebraska.

Stivers was used primarily as a serving specialist as a freshman, but is among the squad's most versatile players.

Smith will get a serious look at middle blocker, but has seen much of her action as a Bluejay as a right-side hitter.

Lastly, Bird is a true freshman from the Omaha suburb of Bennington. She's regarded by some scouting services as a top-100 recruit and may be the rare freshman who can step in and play all six rotations for a contending team.



Kate Elman

Liberos & Defensive Specialists

Five women will see the majority of the time in the back row for Creighton in 2013.

Junior Katie Neisler, as well as sophomores Kate Elman, Ashley Jansen and Lizzy Stivers all return, while Amanda Foje arrives to challenge for court time.

Elman earned MVC All-Freshman Team accolades last year, playing as CU's libero in every match. She had 10 or more digs in every contest but one, and her 617 digs were third-most in school history.

Jansen played in all but one match as a defensive and serving specialist, helping a back-row defensive unit that rarely let the ball touch the floor, and frequently started scoring runs with her serving skills.

Neisler has spent the majority of her college career as a defensive specialist, but will also be given the opportunity at outside hitter. Neisler had a career-best 20 digs in CU's MVC Tournament win vs. Illinois State, and owns 17 career matches of double-figure digs.

Stivers can play virtually anywhere on the court, and could earn a role thanks to her all-around skills.

Like Elman and Jansen, Foje is an Omaha product and has played on highly-competitive club teams.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Two-time National Coach of the Year Kirsten Bernthal Booth will enter her 11th season in 2013 with four returning starters from a team that finished 29-4 and earned a No. 24 spot in the final 2012 national rankings.

Booth was named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year after the best season in program history in 2012. Creighton finished 29-4 while sweeping the MVC regular-season and tournament titles in a season for the ages. CU went 12-1 at home (9-0 in MVC play) and produced a program-record 17-match win streak that carried into the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Senior setter Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year, while sophomore middle blocker Kelli Browning was tabbed as MVC Defensive Player of the Year. Both women were named Honorable-Mention All-American by the AVCA. In addition, Creighton landed Melanie Jereb and Kate Elman on the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

The 2011 season saw the Jays claim three First Team All-Valley picks for just the second time in program history, including the program's first MVC Libero of the Year accolade.

Creighton's 2010 NCAA Tournament run included an inspiring first-round victory over No. 16 Iowa State, and helped the Bluejays earn votes in the year-ending top-25 poll. Add it up, and it quickly becomes evident why Booth was named 2010 National Coach of the Year by Collegiate Volleyball Update.

The at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Tournament came not long after back-to-back second-place finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments.

Booth enters her 11th year as head coach at Creighton with an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Under her direction, the program has attracted two crowds of more than 12,000 while ranking in the top-50 nationally in attendance each of the past seven years.

Creighton has gone 187-119 while averaging 1,114 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to an 93-152 mark and 215 fans per match average the nine years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams qualified for the MVC Tournament, with six of the last seven squads reaching the semifinals.

Booth's .611 winning percentage and 187 wins are best in Creighton volleyball's modern history. Added with her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood (Iowa) Community College, Booth owns 299 career victories, an average of 23 wins per season.

In her first 10 seasons, Booth has coached 18 First Team and nine Second Team All-MVC picks, while also recruiting and coaching 12 MVC All-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have also won nine AVCA Team Academic Awards while placing 26 members on the MVC Scholar-Athlete Team in that time, including CoSIDA Academic All-Americans Emily Greisch (2006) and Bober (2012).

Creighton's 2010 season saw the Jays fight back from a slow start to finish third in the Missouri Valley Conference. Creighton reached the MVC Tournament finals for the first time after beating Wichita State in the semifinals, which helped secure a much-deserved at-large bid. Creighton then defeated No. 16 Iowa State in five sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, making the Bluejays the lone MVC representative to reach the second round. Bober was named First Team All-MVC and All-Central Region, going on to earn Honorable Mention All-America accolades.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. Playing the most difficult non-conference schedule in program history, Creighton finished 18-9 overall and had the second-best RPI of any team to not receive an NCAA bid.

That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA Honorable-Mention All-America accolades. Omaha product Amanda Cvejdlik joined Lebeda and Houts on the All-MVC First Team, while libero Bianca Rivera was a Second Team All-Valley selection.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. The Jays became the first team in history to rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at CenturyLink Center Omaha. Lebeda set a Creighton record for career assists, Rivera a record for single-season digs, and Kelly Goc a season and career mark for hitting percentage. Goc would also become the program's first Honorable-Mention All-American on the court.

Booth's 2006 team won a then-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals. They also took a set from eventual national champion Nebraska and picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State as well as a victory at Wichita State.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first win at Northern Iowa, a win over BIG EAST power Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Jays would finish 16-14.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that composed one of the nation's most-heralded recruiting classes.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top 50 nationally each of the last seven seasons.

Need another reason that Creighton is a program on the rise? Check out D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The on-campus facility opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including Creighton's four-set win over No. 25 Wichita State. Creighton is 40-15 in its four seasons at the facility, where it owned a 31-5 mark in MVC play.

On the court, Booth was an all-state setter in high school at Lincoln (Neb.) East and conference MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors and was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her 2000 team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her 2001 team placed fourth nationally and her 2002 club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors. Twice, she was named District Coach of the Year.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned All-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230) and was inducted into Truman State's Athletic Hall of Fame in October, 2011.

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at No. 1 singles. She was also a second team all-state volleyball player.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple has three daughters: Reese (8), Hayden (6) and Berkeley (2).

Year-by-Year Under Kirsten Bernthal Booth

2012 (29-4, 17-1 MVC, Final RPI of 24)
One of the best seasons by any women's team in Creighton history sees the Jays close their 19-year run in the MVC by winning the program's first Valley regular-season and Tournament titles. CU wins regular-season tournaments at USF and Northern Colorado before clinching the outright league crown with a memorable 3-2 comeback win at rival Wichita State. The Jays would sweep the Shockers eight days later for the Valley Tourney title, and sweep Marquette to open NCAA Tournament play before falling in four sets at Minnesota. Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year and Tournament MVP, while Kelli Browning was tabbed MVC Defensive Player of the Year after tying for the national lead with 204 blocks. Both women were named honorable-mention All-Americans and were joined on the All-MVC First Team by freshman Melanie Jereb. Kirsten Bernthal Booth was named MVC Coach of the Year and CaptainU National Coach of the Year. Creighton also spends four weeks in the AVCA Top 25 for the first time, reaching as high as No. 21 before finishing No. 24.

2011 (17-14, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 74)
Creighton finished the 2011 season with a 17-14 mark, falling in the quarterfinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays tied a program record with three First Team All-MVC picks (Megan Bober, Laurel Sanford and MVC Libero of the Year Julianne Mandolfo). Bober set an MVC record with nine triple-doubles, while Mandolfo set CU single-season records for digs and digs per set. Two women, Leah McNary and Michelle Sicner, were named to the MVC's All-Freshman squad.

2010 (21-12, 13-5 MVC, Final RPI of 32)
Creighton's breakthrough season sees the Bluejays make their first NCAA Tournament, upset No. 16 Iowa State, and coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth claim National Coach of the Year honors from CVU.com. Creighton finished third in the MVC, the nation's No. 6-ranked conference, and then broke down another barrier by reaching its first conference tournament final. The Jays earn an at-large bid, beating Iowa State in five sets, before falling at No. 12 Minnesota to end the year. Sophomore setter Megan Bober was named First Team All-MVC and Honorable Mention All-American as part of a balanced squad that ranked second nationally in digs per set (18.94 dps.).

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)
Creighton opens the D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beats No. 25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent ever, and hosts the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcomes a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts is named First Team All-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

2008 (18-9, 15-3 MVC, Final RPI of 46)
Once again Creighton narrowly misses an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Jays dropped key five-set matches to No. 21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins was lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruises through the league with a best-ever 15-3 mark, including a 3-0 sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second place and set a program record with an eighth-straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts is named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and Honorable Mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlik on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)
Creighton does not receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid despite wrapping up a second straight 21-10 campaign. The Jays tie for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, aren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeat as First Team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an Honorable Mention All-American. Allie Oelke is MVC Freshman of the Year, while libero Bianca Rivera sets new single-season dig marks. Creighton averages a record 1,860 fans per home match, hosting more than 13,000 at CenturyLink Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest against Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)
Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranked among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-set road win at Wichita State and exciting four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program has reached unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda are both named First Team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)
A road win at Northern Iowa highlights a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeats her First Team All-MVC honors and finishes 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda led the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by talented Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik in one of Creighton's top recruiting classes ever.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)
A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included victories at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton set a record with 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff is First Team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc are named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)
With virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improves its win total from 2002 by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marks the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fall. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Coaching Staff

Tom Mendoza

Tom Mendoza begins his fourth year at Creighton with a promotion to associate head coach.

Mendoza serves as the program's recruiting coordinator and aids with practice, scouting and other facets of the program. He also works directly with Creighton's setters and middle blockers.

Last season Creighton won MVC regular-season and tournament titles while landing in the top 25 for the first time. Setter Megan Bober was named MVC Player of the Year, while middle blocker Kelli Browning claimed MVC Defensive Player of the Year plaudits. Both women were named Honorable Mention AVCA All-Americans.

Mendoza's pupils in 2011 featured First Team All-MVC picks Laurel Sanford and Bober, as well as All-Freshman honoree Michelle Sicner. He helped with the mid-season implementation of a 6-2 offense that gave opponents fits throughout the year.

In his first season, Creighton went 21-12 and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament, where the Jays defeated nationally-ranked Iowa State.

He was hired at Creighton in June 2010 after spending the 2009 season at the University of Evansville. While with the Purple Aces, Mendoza worked with the setters, outside hitters and primary passers. He also recruited for the Purple Aces program.

Mendoza, a native of Buffalo Grove, Ill., arrived at UE after spending two seasons as the volunteer assistant at Michigan State. While at Michigan State, Mendoza and the Spartans appeared in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. He also served on the Michigan State volleyball summer camp staff in 2007 and 2008 and directed Spartan Session volleyball camps and clinics.

A three-year letterwinner in volleyball at Newman University and a one-year letterwinner at Lewis University, Mendoza had an outstanding playing career. He was a 10-time Mid-America Men's Volleyball Intercollegiate Conference Setter of the Week and was a three-time all-conference selection. During his playing career, he was also named an NAIA All-American.

Mendoza received his bachelor's degree in management information systems from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill.

He resides in Omaha.

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her 11th season as an assistant coach at Creighton. An original member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's staff, she is the longest-tenured assistant coach in program history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters while also assisting with scouting and recruiting.

Last season Creighton won MVC regular-season and tournament titles while landing in the top 25 for the first time, continuing an upward trend. The last 10 years have seen the Creighton team record its top seven single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top five individual single-season marks that were set by Leah Ratzlaff, Alicia Runge and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has trained four outside hitters to a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman Team; Carolyn Decker (2004), Allie Oelke (2007), Leah McNary (2011) and Melanie Jereb (2012). Oelke became the program's first player named Valley Freshman of the Year, as well, while Jereb became CU's first freshman ever named First Team All-MVC.

Behrens has seen Creighton go 187-119 in her 10 completed seasons on the bench, including NCAA Tournament wins in 2010 and 2012.

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior.

She closed her career as the NU's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Along with her coaching duties, Behrens helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps in addition to her role in the Bluejay compliance office.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their two kids, Logan (3) and Hattie (born in February).

Amanda (Gates) Sjuts

Former University of Nebraska middle blocker Amanda (Gates) Sjuts enters her fourth season as a volunteer assistant at Creighton.

Sjuts' primary responsibilities are helping with practices -- specifically training middle blockers -- as well as some administrative tasks. Since her arrival, Creighton has consistently ranked among the nation's top blocking teams, including a No. 4 finish in 2012.

A native of Columbus, Neb., she competed at Nebraska from 2005-08 under her maiden name of Amanda Gates. She enjoyed a decorated career with the Huskers as part of a senior class that went 127-8 over four years as the Cornhuskers won the national title in 2006, were NCAA runners-up in 2005, reached the NCAA Tournament semifinals in 2008 and the NCAA quarterfinals in 2007.

In 2008, she was named a CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine First-Team Academic All-American in addition to honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades, while serving as a Husker tri-captain. She was a recipient of Postgraduate Scholarships from both the NCAA and Big 12 Conference, a two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 pick and was a nine-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

She resides in Omaha with her husband of three years, Anthony.

Melanie Placke

New to the Creighton program in 2013 is Melanie Placke, who will serve as the program's volunteer director of operations.

Placke will help coordinate some aspects of team travel, and also aid with team meals, video, scouting and general office duties.

Placke arrives in Omaha after spending the previous four seasons playing for Scott Kneifl at Wayne State University in Wayne, Neb.

While with the Wildcats, Placke amassed 444 kills and 126 blocks while twice being named an honorable-mention pick on the Omaha World-Herald's All-Nebraska Volleyball Team. WSU went 100-30 in her four years in the program, reaching the NCAA Tournament each season.

Placke also excelled in the classroom, where she was a three-time honoree on the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Fall All-Academic Team.

Placke hails from St. Libory, Neb., and was a three-time All-Lou Platte Conference selection at St. Paul High School.

BIG EAST Conference

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, join a BIG EAST that retains DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Providence, Seton Hall, St. John's and Villanova. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York.

The 2013-14 academic year will be the 35th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 13 titles in the last 14 years, including men's (Louisville) and women's (Connecticut) hoop titles in 2012-13.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 34 national championships in six different sports and 139 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2012-13.

All 10 schools reside within a top-75 media market, including eight schools in a top-35 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.

"Athletic conference participation goes beyond the courts and playing fields. We see an opportunity for greatness, and we believe this new affiliation will enhance the visibility of the University through increased national exposure, improving our ability to recruit exemplary students and faculty and cultivate philanthropic opportunities."

Creighton President
Timothy R. Lannon, S.J.

"We feel that joining the BIG EAST Conference gives us a greater opportunity to recruit, retain, develop, and graduate outstanding students and outstanding student-athletes. We know that continued success and excellence in each of our athletics programs will not be easy. We chose to join the BIG EAST not because it will be easy to be successful, we know it will be difficult. At Creighton University, we believe that goals that are difficult to achieve are the most worthwhile."

Creighton Athletic Director
Bruce Rasmussen

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Creighton Director of Athletics and President

Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen

The newest appointment to the highly esteemed NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 20th year as director of athletics, and 34th overall at Creighton University.

During Rasmussen's tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on and off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than four recent projects that continue to change the area athletics scene. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened in 2009 and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. East of the Ryan Athletic Center is Creighton's new student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor and stands as one of the centerpieces on the Creighton campus. It is located next to the Championship Center (opening April 2014). Last but not least is the completion of TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, home to Bluejay baseball and the College World Series, which opened in 2011 to rave reviews.

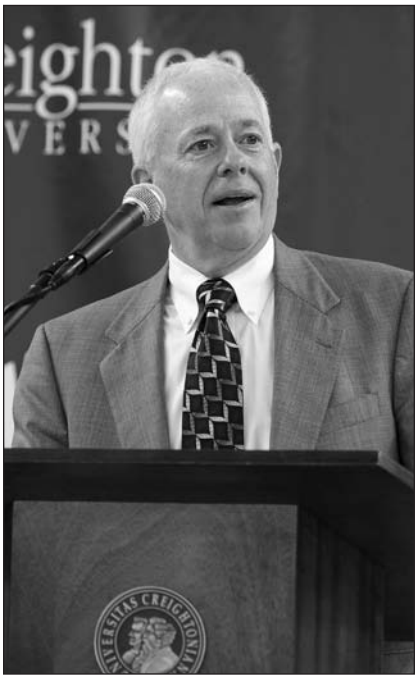
Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past decade, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Rasmussen also helped lead the charge for one of the biggest moves in school history when the school accepted an invitation into the BIG EAST Conference in March of 2013.

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of athletics director, Creighton has won 29 regular-season and 36 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 65 postseason appearances. The Bluejays were the only school in the 107-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 16 straight men's basketball postseasons, and have made the NCAA Tournament in men's soccer in 20 of the past 21 years. The Creighton softball team has made six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 11 years.

Creighton has also been recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of the last nine seasons, including a record 3.37 GPA in the spring of 2012 by student-athletes.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD Ameritrade Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in Omaha for another 25 years. With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has welcomed more than 300,000 fans in each of the last eight years.



Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award, and in 2010 was again honored with an Under Armour AD of the Year award by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. In 2008, he was inducted into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame.

Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes have owned GPAs of 3.30 or above in 14 straight semesters entering the fall of 2013.

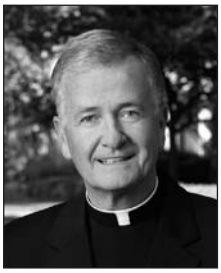
Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's leadership, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2012 Jamboree generated more than $400,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), that culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (28), David (26), John (22), Katie (18) and Grace (15).



President Timothy R. Lannon, S.J.

Timothy R. Lannon, S.J., is Creighton University's 24th president and the first Creighton alumnus to head the University.

Father Lannon brought his national reputation as a passionate leader in higher education home to his alma mater in 2011 after eight years as the president of Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia. Prior to that, he served in leadership roles at Marquette University. He spent seven years as the president of Creighton Prep in Omaha.

He has advanced Creighton's Catholic, Jesuit mission by focusing on academic excellence, compassionate care, unwavering faith and service to others.

Father Lannon expanded the teaching affiliation between Creighton's health science programs and the area's largest healthcare organization -- turning over clinical operations to a respected partner who shares Creighton's commitment to compassionate healthcare in the Catholic tradition. Through the new partnership -- Alegent Creighton Health -- Creighton's health science students are enjoying new opportunities in clinical education.

Father Lannon also launched a plan to study the way Creighton utilizes its space. As a result, Creighton is undertaking the largest campus renovation project in its history, impacting the Colleges of Business and Arts and Sciences, as well as Student Life.

A native of Mason City, Iowa, Father Lannon entered the Society of Jesus in 1977 and was ordained a priest at St. John's Church on Creighton's campus in 1986.

In addition to his undergraduate degree from Creighton, he holds graduate degrees from Weston Jesuit School of Theology, which is now the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry, and Harvard University.

Creighton was also given a nod for its commitment to student success, which acknowledges schools who accept students with well-rounded high school experiences.

The Princeton Review listed Creighton as one of the nation's top 377 colleges and universities in its 2013 college guide and CollegesofDistinction.com named Creighton one of 71 Catholic colleges of distinction for student engagement, quality of teaching, campus vibrancy and graduates' success.

Creighton University also has been recognized as an economic driver, community service advocate and urban developer in a Top 25 national ranking.

In 2013, the University was named for the sixth year to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll for its volunteerism, student-service-learning and civic engagement as well as meaningful community outcomes.

Last year, Creighton students took part in more than 398,000 hours of community service at more than 800 local, national and international community organizations.

Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in retreats, faith-sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Students may enroll in Creighton's service-learning semester in the Dominican Republic, faculty-led courses taught abroad, or study at one of 165 institutions located in 55 countries through exchange or affiliate programs.

Creighton also has campuses outside of the Omaha area, including our School of Medicine Regional Campus at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix; an occupational therapy partnership with the University of Alaska in Anchorage; and a campus for nursing students in Hastings, Neb.

The campus design and master plan have received top awards in landscape and architecture.

Since 2000, Creighton has invested nearly $280 million in on-campus improvements and planned expansion to create a more vibrant and robust campus:

- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events.
- The Hixson-Lied Science Building, the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building form the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions' leading approach to teaching and research.
- Davis Square and Opus Hall are upperclassman townhome residence halls located on the east side of campus.
- The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to CU women's basketball and volleyball.
- The Rasmussen Fitness and Sports Center opened in the fall of 2012.
- The Mike and Josie Harper Center will become the home of the College of Business in the fall of 2013.
- The Championship Center will open in 2014.

At the center of campus is the heart of the University, the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, as well as the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

The University is currently undergoing the largest renovation project in its history with more than 100,000 sq. ft. of academic space being remodeled.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.34 GPA last spring. The student-athletes also own a 3.33 cumulative GPA.
- Creighton has won the MVC All-Academic Award in seven of the past nine seasons.
- The NCAA uses a tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. In the spring of 2013, Creighton had three teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: women's tennis, women's crew and volleyball.
- 100 of Creighton's 247 student-athletes (40.5 percent) earned a 3.5 GPA or better during the spring 2013 semester. Seven of these athletes were Creighton volleyball players.
- Creighton had 131 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 78 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Twenty-three student-athletes (9.3 percent), including volleyball players Megan Bober and Brittany Moon and Melanie Jereb, earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2013 semester.
- 181 student-athletes (73.3 percent) earned a 3.0 GPA or better in the spring 2013 semester.
- Nine teams (women's basketball, crew, men's cross country, women's cross country, men's golf, women's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPAs of 3.3 or better last spring and every team owns a cumulative GPA of 2.8 or better.
- Creighton owns 38 Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-American honors all-time. Last year Creighton's Megan Bober (Volleyball) and Becca Changstrom (Softball) became the school's latest honorees.
- Creighton broke ground in 2013 on the Championship Center that is located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium. It will serve as the new Creighton Athletics home for strength and conditioning, men's basketball and the academic learning center when it opens in the spring of 2014.

Creighton Volleyball Continues Academic Excellence

The 2012-13 Creighton University volleyball team has been honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association as a recipient of the AVCA Team Academic Award. This is Creighton's ninth award in the last 10 seasons and 11th overall, as the Bluejays previously were honored in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011.

Creighton was one of two Division I teams (women's or men's) from the state of Nebraska to be honored.

The award, initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors teams that displayed excellence in the classroom by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative GPA. A record 130 Division I schools qualified for the honor in 2012-13, including seven teams in the BIG EAST Conference.

Last year Megan Bober and Brooke Boggs were named first-team choices on the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete team, giving CU 20 such selections in the past 10 seasons. Bober and Boggs both earned CoSIDA Academic All-District VII honors last fall, with Bober becoming the second CoSIDA Academic All-American in program history. The Bluejay volleyball team had a GPA of 3.45 last fall, 3.43 this spring and now owns a 3.35 cumulative GPA.
